Trump VS. Clinton ,The second Presidential Debate

By Alise Boluch

The presidential election is just around the corner with only less than a month to go. Which means a couple more debates before then. Donald Trump and Hilary Clinton faced off in the second presidential debate. It was on Sunday, October 9, 2016 at 9:00pm. The debate was held in Washington University in St. Louis, Missouri. The debate started off with Clinton and Trump arguing about the recent news that surfaced in the campaign.

Unlike the first presidential debate the second one was in a town hall style format. Which means half the questions were asked by the audience members, and the other half was asked by the moderators. In the second debate Clinton was hoping to rekindle her success from the first presidential debate. The priority for Trump this time around was to not repeat his first debate performance.

Clinton once again won over the debate. Trump however lost, whatever chance he had at capturing the white house faded with his performance on Sunday. He desperately needed a win to get back into reverse his slide in the polls. Ava Gillespi a 7th grader said, "I think Trump will ruin our government and will not do any good for the middle class". The third and last debate will be Wednesday, October 19, 2016 at 9:00pm.

Protest flares up around the country

By: Brent Willis

Colin Kaepernick's protest about the racial killing of African American citizens. Colin is a backup quarter back for the 49ers. He will get his first start in a week, (this week.) In a preseason game on August 18th, 2016 Colin sat on the bench while the national anthem was being played. He did this to protest the racial killing by cops on African Americans. Many people around the NFL are joining him. Some high schools are doing it but his old high school is not at all. A lot of fans do not support it, they are burning jerseys and such.

Colin Kaepernick is trying everything to start a protest and succeed. As Colin is having a pro test in the NFL is it affecting our thoughts on him? 8th grader Ben Tjernlund says, "He needs to either stand or get out of the country." Is the protest affecting the teams play? 8th grader Brady Helka says, "He doesn't even start so why does it matter." Students around the school have mixed thoughts on the protest. Will Colins protest succeed or bring a false protest ?

Michigan hosting Illinois

By: Lucas Cornett

After a big game In New Jersey, Michigan is hosting the Illinois Illini in Ann Arbor. The last time the Wolverines played Illinois was at home and won 45-0 with Brady Hoke as their head coach. Michigan has won 69 games out of 92 games (1898- 2012). Michigan has gone 6-0. Their last game was an absolute blow-out beating the Rutgers 78-0. During that game there was a total of 600 yards, with 119 passing yards and 481 rush yards. They had 23 first downs and only had one fumble and no interceptions.

As the Wolverines has gone 6-0, Illinois has only gone 1-4. Will you think it will be a close game or not? “ No, not at all, Michigan is going to get the W.” 8th grader Noah Mahon was asked. For Michigan so far for almost all their games they have scored 45 points or higher. Who do you think will be a key player for Michigan during the game? “ De’Veon Smith, because they need to establish a run game.” 8th grader Ben Tjernlund was also asked. Could Michigan keep their undefeated streak going?

Great matchup folks

By: Brady Helka

How will the Detroit Lions play Against the LA Rams after their win that shocked the nation? On October 9th The Lions played against the undefeated Philadelphia Eagles and won, what a shocker. The Lions had 24 and the Eagles with 23 it was a very close game at the end With Darious Slay becoming very clutch with a forced fumble and an Interception that turned the whole game around. Make sure you tune in on Sunday, October 16 for a very good matchup.

Students were asked questions about the Lions. Joe Calus, an 8th grader at Shumate was asked Do you think the Lions will beat the Rams and why? “No, because the lion aren’t good enough and need more work.” Ben Tjernlund an 8th grader at Shumate was asked how much confidence the Lions have after beating the undefeated Eagles. “I say they don’t have a lot of confidence but it was still a moral win.” Tune in Sunday, October 16 for a god matchup.

Are The Nerves Getting The Best of These Runners?

By: Katelyn Prisbylla

Once again your cross country team took home a great second place win. They lost to Woodhaven by 29 points with Woodhaven in first with 25 points and Shumate in second with 54 points. Some outstanding runs from Julia Mills placing second overall and Abigail Polakowski coming in seventh overall. Also the girls got seventh for the invitational meet ending with 120 points. Ellen Szucs and Hailey Holby are also turning in strong performances.

Your girls’ team had some things to talk about. First year cross country runner Emily Petty made a comment, “I want to win first once before the season is over.” Also three year runner Julia mills said, “I am most nervous about going up against Woodhaven because they have a lot of good runners.” Come see your girls try to take the win home next Tuesday at Allen Park and also this Saturday at Monroe.

Your Seahawks Soar, Once Again!

By: Alec Grzegorek

Your Shumate Cross Country team performed great on the Saturday hosted by Monroe Milers. Standout runners in this meet for the 2 mile course were 3rd place Alec Grzegorek, Carson Blake in 19th, and Reese Collins in 29th. Standout runners for the 1 mile course were Aiden Malec in 7th place, Jack Brinker took 9th place, and trailing Jack was John Hojnowski came in 11th place. Runners who bumped up many places were Ben Higgins, as well as Lucas Kutty both in the 2 mile course!

Our team is ready for Tuesday's league meet. An 8th grader, Elijah Rowe stated "I am going to run my hardest and push myself to the limit every practice." In preparation leagues next week. The Seahawks will head over to Woodhaven High School for the final meet of the '16-'17 season. Awards will be given out to the top 30 runners, as well as the top 3 teams that had the best score at the end of the day. Let's do it, Shumate!

Blood, Sweat, and Tears

By: Brooke Zdankiewicz

The Volleyball season has been great but it is almost over with 2 home games left. As of now, the girls have won a majority of their games. They recently had a tournament at Allen Park, they had a long exhausting day but ended up going home with a placing of 3rd in the gold division. The 7th grade tournament was Saturday October 15th, they had a rough game but ended up placing 1st in the silver division. They have had a very good season but it will soon be over.

All girls on the court have assigned or specific position, but doesn't that one spot always get boring? Sophia Montry said "I like to set but if I could pick any other position on the court I would be an outside hitter because I like the rush and thrill of hitting people in the face." Madison Wiseman said, "I would like to be a back row player because I would get more action and I would always have a touch on the ball." The team is doing very well but every team can work on something. Nadia Papalas said, "I think we are doing very well but we need to work on footwork, but other than that I think we will do very well against on the upcoming teams if we take our coaches tips and try our hardest." The volleyball team has become a family over the season and the 7th graders would love new teammates, try out for volleyball next year and be a part of the family.

By: Jenna Lazarski

A lot of 8th graders are excited for the trip. 8th grader Joslyn Ferguson said, "I'm looking forward to the Washington DC trip because it'll be a great experience to have with friends." But not only 8th graders are excited, some 7th graders are looking forward to the trip next year as well. 7th grader Lilli Fraczek said, "I'm looking forward to the DC trip next year because it's a chance to get away from school and be with friends." Although only 156 people are attending the trip, it will still be a very fun learning experience for everyone going.

There's a New Type of Watch!

By: Rachael Keller

Is it a good thing they have this watch? Apple has been coming out with no technology like no tomorrow, they now have a new apple watch! On September 16th 2016 they came out with the apple watch 2. The pros about this watch is it is water resistant, and has GPS onboard. Also, it has 2 day battery life. But the cons about this watch is it is kind of expensive. Its $369. There are a lack of useful apps, and the fitness could be more comprehensive. But they released it the same day they released the iPhone 7 so if you wanted to get the apple watch the same day you got a new phone you could.

Would people like the apple watch if they had it? "It's always on your wrist so you don't need to worry about dropping it or having it in your pocket." Said Rebecca Allsbrosks in 7th grade. On the other hand Bella Bienko says "it does the same thing a phone can do." Would you like to have an apple watch?

The Last Game

By Richard Kamin

This week are Seahawk will take on the airport jets for their last game hopefully they win their last game because they haven't had a good season this year. They need to work on better blocking on the offense line and they need to warp up on tackle when they are on defense. After losing to Woodhaven at home 28 to 0 if they win this game they will still have a losing season.

Students were asked about the 7th grade football team and Jacob Boyed said "yes I think we will win because we are a better team than airport". Jacob lazy plays tight end first string I asked him how do you think you will do against airport this week and he said "yes I think we will win against them because we are a discipline team then airport". Hopefully the Seahawks will pull out a win against the jets

Marvel's Upcoming Movie: Doctor Strange

By: Reyna Macabebe

Marvel is back at it again with the beautifully animated and shot trailers, but this time with a new hero; Doctor Strange. The new movie is about Doctor Stephen Strange, played by the well-known and beloved Benedict Cumberbatch, who was once a young but foolish surgeon who suffered from a terrible accident, limiting him from continuing his life as a surgeon. While his life is in shambles, he joins a mythical being known as "The Ancient One" who gives him mythical powers to be the new Sorcerer Supreme. Now he, his girlfriend, Clea, and his assistant are on a quest to fulfill his destiny.

A lot of people are super excited for the movie, but most people are excited to just see Benedict Cumberbatch on the big screen. Sara Rasmussen, an eighth grade student from Shumate Middle School, is one of those excited people. "I am very excited for Doctor Strange, especially because Benedict Cumberbatch will be in it and it will make the movie even better because he is a great actor." Jamie West is another student from Shumate who is also excited about seeing Benedict. Are you excited for the movie? Remember to get your tickets soon because this movie is coming out November 4th,

Welcome to the new Location, Mr. Afton

By Makayla Straub

Will you be able to survive another Five Nights? After 24 nights of surviving the horror of Five Nights at Freddy's, the game lore is finally wrapping up. Five Nights at Freddy's: Sister Location was released on October 7th, 2016 on Steam for the PC. Unlike the other games Scott Cawthon, creator of FNAF, has created, he chose to take a completely different turn with Sister Location. Now, instead of just sitting in an office, slamming doors and blocking off vents, you are able to roam around the building. Unlocking secrets with every vent you crawl through and every button you press. The animatronics now have voices and comment about your every move. Is that not scary enough for you? Just don't forget; they're watching. And they're waiting.

Once Sister Location was released, that's all the internet was talking about. "Once I got on Instagram I was spammed with 'Exotic Butter' Memes" Natasha Williams said, when asked about the hype, "it's seriously everywhere I look on Instagram. I'm not sure what to make of it." But, that's not all that Sister Location has to offer. With many jokes hidden inside the game, there is also the terrifying lore we were all waiting for. Once the true ending is achieved, it will leave you with chills up your spine. Could this be the end of the Five Nights at Freddy's lore? Is the game finally wrapping up?

By: Alona Mattison

This year is Amerie Clark's 2nd year here at Shumate Middle School. She was born in Dearborn and she's been living in Woodhaven MI for three years. Amerie lives with her mom and her brothers. Her mom and dad are split up but she still sees him and they have a great relationship. She has six siblings, three brothers and three sisters but she doesn't live with her three sisters, just her brothers. Another sibling is on the way and she can't wait to know the gender. She's hoping for a girl. Amerie loves running she says, "It's how you express yourself and you get a good exercise."

Amerie hasn't signed up to run track yet but she will. Amerie has goals this year which is simple. She wants to get A's and B's, but if she can all A's. Halloween is coming up and she has her plan all figured out. She's trick-or-treating and dressing up as a Snapchat filter. Very creative.

practices are Tuesday through Friday at Downriver Gymnastics in Southgate. "Cheer is my life!" she stated.

Maguire loves to dance too, not as a sport but in her free time. Her favorite dance moves are the hopscotch, Whip/Nae Nae, Juju on that Beat, hitting the folks, dabbing, and dropping. She does not have any siblings, but her cousin Sebastian Potter goes to Shumate. She said "My mom and dad are pretty lit." and "I'm the coolest 8th grader in town." Stay tuned for another student spotlight next week!

Shumate Headlines

By: Nevaeh King

Do think that you are going to the Monster Dash? Well if u are the date for the monster dash is October, 23, 2016 it will be at Shumates library. The book fair is October, 17-21 2016.

Now we still have the monster dash sign ups available (www.everalracemgt.com/)

Clearly Ms.Hulderman is ready for the Monster dash because she said "I am excited to see our Seahawks and their parents run for charity". Also a student in Shumate, Alec Grzegorek said "I have ran a few Martian Marathons. The farthest I have done is 7 miles". We all should do this because it is a good way to give back to our school.

Ms.Hulderman our cross country coach is volunteering to lead the race in a golf cart to show the runners were to go. Haleigh Hook in 6th grade said " Possibly me and my dad will go to the monster dash. I think that we will come in like 100th place."

Another Breakup?

By: Jada Gardner

Drake, a singer from Canada, and Rihanna, famous singer from Barbadian, has broken up. But, it may not be the end of this on and off relationship. Apparently the couple has broken up due to their different tours and interviews. "They don't have the same schedules to see each other, also their both on tour." Said Adrian Greenawalt, an 8th grader at Shumate Middle School. Adrian's statement is true. The couple was happily in love but didn't have the time to see each other. Rihanna's tour 'Anti' and Drakes tour 'Boy Meets World' interfere with each other, causing a long distance relationship.

Drake and Rihanna have dated before their recent break up. "I think they'll get back together for publicity and popularity." Said Katie Greulich, an 8th grader at Shumate Middle School. The former couple still love and adore each other according to Vouge.com. Since 2009 the couple has been going on dates with each other, but often had a couple months in between the time they seen each other. Their most recent collaborations include "Too Good" off Drake's Views, and "Work" off of RiRi's Anti album. In fact, the OVO rapper made a surprise appearance during her concert in Manchester to perform the catchy track "work", and the chemistry was undeniable. Their on-again, off-again relationship has seen several ups and downs since 2009.

Back At It Again

By: Taylor Martin

Could this be the start of a new album for the rapping group Rae Sremmurd? Atlanta brothers, 21 year old Swae Lee and 22 year old Slim Jimmy have recently come out with a new song called 'Black Beatles' ft. Gucci Mane on their upcoming album "Sremmlife 2", which has caught everyone's attention including Shumate middle school.

"I really enjoy this song because they are extremely good artist and the beat always gets me into a good mood after listening to it" states 8th grader Adrian Greenawalt. Adrian does not seem to be the only one feeling this way.

Many fans of this song have said they feel like they are sitting under water when listening to the song because of the majestic vibes the beat gives off. Which is exactly what rapper Mike Will Made-It wanted when making the beat for the two siblings. He stated in an interview with Digital Drip, that his idea for the beat was for it to sound like two different super Nintendo water levels playing on separate browser tabs. Even with all this information still no one knows when the duo will drop this album.

But there is good news about it, Elena who is played by Nina Dobrev is coming back to finish The Vampire Diaries (TVD)! Stefan played by Paul Wesley will help his older brother Damon who is played by Ian Somerhadler get Elena back. But we know what that means Bonnie isn't going to be on this season. Season will consist of 16 episodes. It comes out October 21, 2016. The first episode is called Hello Brother and we wonder what it's going to be about? So don't forget to watch Hello Brother on October 21 at 8/7c on CW.

TVD has a lot of viewers and it's not a surprise because every episode has people just wanting more and more. When 8th grader McKenzie Cools was asked how long she has watched TVD it wasn't a surprise when she said since it came out. When asked if she was excited Cools replied with, "I'm very excited about season eight I have been on edge about it," Lyndsey Mitchell says she is excited to see season eight and can't wait to see how the show ends. Now we just wait

New discovery in technology; the PSVR

Haley Krueger

The PS Virtual reality or PS VR is a virtual reality headset coming out on October 13th 2016. The step into technology will cost 399. It was announced in the Game Developers Conference when Sony, the console developer, the specs, price and release date. "The PS Vr is one of the first big steps into virtual reality and requires a PlayStation 4 to get started. PlayStation VR package that only includes the PS VR system, headphones and all cabling required for $399, and a PlayStation VR Launch Bundle which includes the PS

VR system, PlayStation Camera, two PlayStation Move Motion Controllers, and a copy of PlayStation VR Worlds for $499 Another interesting pack-in is the PlayStation VR demo disc that comes with both packages and has a dozen-or-so titles ready for you to check out."

There's also other virtual reality headsets such as e Oculus Rift and the HTC Vive.

As I said the PS VR is a virtual reality system for the PlayStation and what it does is make you feel like you're really there inside the game. One person agrees that the whole thing is pretty cool, but the whole things really expensive because of the equipment. I asked a 6th grader named Matthew Vizachero and he said "the whole things pretty cool, but I think it's pretty expensive." I mean sure it's the beginning of a new era of technology but its very expensive. So what do you think? Is it to expensive or worth the money?
