N.Y and N.J Bombing

By: Brent Willis

BOOM... Several moments later, BOOM... Two bombs go off in Manhattan, N.Y and New Jersey on September 18th 2016. The police/FBI have suspected one man for some time. A day later police chase broke out, two police had been shot but not killed. They caught the man Ahmad Khan Rahami in a shootout. He allegedly planted and fused the bombs. He is responsible for 29 injuries but no deaths thankfully. The police are suspecting that Rahami had help but there is no suspects.

Terrorism is very common around the world. The recent bombings have been linked to terrorism. Was an act of terrorism? 8th grader Alec Grzegorek says, "Yes, because terrorism is very common and also around the world." Another student named Ben Tjernlund in 8th grader, will there will ever be a terrorist attack on Detroit? He says, "No, because there is bigger cities than Detroit." Terrorism is going around in U.S.A, you should always be aware of your surroundings.

Michigan So Far Are In National Championship Contention

By: Lucas Cornett

Is Michigan your favorite college football team? After three weeks of college football, Michigan has gone so far 3-0. In Ann Arbor, Michigan has played three games against Hawaii, Central Florida, and Colorado. The Wolverines have dominated their first two games. The home opener against Hawaii was a huge game winning 63-3. Their next game playing Central Florida was another big game beating UCF 51-14. Then a rocky start for the Wolverines allowed 2 touchdowns with 3 minutes off the clock in the first quarter. But came back to win 45-28.

People love college football. Do you think Michigan is going to win the Big Ten Championship? "No, because they got Iowa and Ohio State." 7th grader Jack Neheth. Wilton Speight

Michigan's starting quarterback has been good for Michigan so far, through three games he has completed 51-80 for 686 yards with 8 touchdowns and 1 interception. 8th grader Alec Grzegorek, was asked, what rank do you think Michigan will finish? ## Will The Tigers Advance?

By: Brady Helka

As the baseball regular season wraps up, some teams will make it to the playoffs, but the real question is...will the Tigers make it to the playoffs? The Tigers always have had trouble against the Cleveland Indians this year, so how will they play against them Monday, September 26, 7:10 pm at Comerica Park. The Tigers are 80-70 in the AL league the Baltimore Orioles are up 82-69 and Toronto Blue Jays up 83-68 and also Houston Astros that is under us with the same wins but one loss under us 80-71. So to make the wild card will be a longshot and will need a lot of luck. James McCann said "its win at all cost time."

I asked students questions about the Tigers. Brent Willis a 8th grader in Shumate Middle school, do you think the tigers will advance to the playoffs, why or why not? "No because they are not good in the stretch." I asked Ben Tjernlund another 8th grader at Shumate Middle School, how do you think they will play against the Cleveland Indians? "They will probably lose because they are trash against the Indians." In all this game will be a very good game so tune in on Monday night.

By: Katelyn Prisbylla

Can your Girls Cross Country pull off a win for their next meet? The Shumate Girls Cross Country runners came in a close second their last meet only trailing behind the winner by three points. Your Girls team lost the first place win as Woodhaven took it away. They have been running to the Lake Erie Metro Park for practices. But do not worry the girls are determined to take the win going into their next meet.

The girls Cross Country team had some interesting things to say. Brooke Cifaldi a 7th grader talked about their next meet she said, "We have a better chance of winning this meet because, a fast runner who was not there but now Julia Mills will be there." Another runner who just started is 6th grader Kristine Piatt Bakos who talked about, "To win at our next meet we need to work on staying in pace and not letting anyone pass you." ## Shumate's Big Game

By: William Fort
After beating Southgate 32-0 and there game against Wyandotte do they have the power to beat Trenton? During the Southgate game Shumate shut them out with 32 nothing score. Taurus Wilson had over 130 rushing yards and Jonah Carr had a fumble recovery and an interception. Coach Liptow did a good job keeping our offense together and coach McArthur did a good job keeping are defense on the ball.

The Wyandotte game was a hard fought loss. The final score of the game was 40-0, even though it was a loss there were was stand-out plays. Matthew Patovich had a nice punt recovery and Richard Kamin had a big sack on their quarterback. I asked Joe Calus how do you think think will do against Trenton and he said" Good because Trenton does not sound good." I also asked Richard Kamin what he thought our record would be this year and he said" 5-1 because we area discipline and we are very good. Shumate plays Trenton at Trenton, so wish them luck for the big game.

New Phone Rule Effects Students In Different Ways

By: Jenna Lazarski

Have you ever reached your hand into your pocket or purse for your phone, but you forgot that you can't have it in school anymore? Shumate Middle School made a new policy that cell phones are not allowed to be played at school. Students must keep their phones in their lockers all day long until the 6th hour bell rings for school to be dismissed. Shumate students have been effected by this rule in different ways. Most students are mad and want the rule to change but for different reasons.

Most students don't like the new phone rule. Rachel Mousseau an eighth grader at Shumate said, "I don't like the new phone rule because you can't use your phone in the halls or during lunch. But I do understand why we can't use them during class time. I think that we should just have a little bit harsher punishments." Rachel understands both sides but still thinks that phones should be allowed. Madison Wiseman, another eighth grader at Shumate said, "If I was Mrs. Ferguson, I wouldn't have banned phones. I wouldn't have done that because there could be an emergency and you need to call your parents. Going to the office to call your parents wastes time that you could be learning in class."

Many students at Shumate do not like the new phone rule, but for different reasons. Emergency phone calls and different punishments are good arguments, but what about the people who continue to play their phone in class? What are some punishments for them? Wouldn't it just be easier to ban phones in general?

Shumate Activities

By: Nevaeh King

Do you know what is going on at Shumate? There is a local charity drive, Apples for Ryan. It will be ending October 3rd 2016 so get your can goods in. Students are asked to bring in canned goods to support local families.

In addition, we are three weeks into the Shumate offense football, volleyball, cheerleading & Cross country. Also PBIS at the end of this quarter we will have a movie party during 1st and 2nd hour. So make sure you LEARN (Listen Educate Achieve Respect and Nurture) and turn in all your homework, to be able to attend this party.

In Shumate a couple of kids picked a activity the like, and why? Madisyn McCoy in 6th grade said that she likes the "Apples for Ryan because, her grandma suffered from cancer. She wants to give back to the world." Jorden Reece in 6th grade said "PBIS because, I like parties." We all have a little fun here and there. Joey Izzolena in 8th grade he said he likes "PBIS because, it is something to reward you to be well behaved." Rewards happen to the best of us.

American Horror Story Season 6 Is Here

By: Reyna Macsabebe

Turn off the lights, get comfy on your couch, and grab your favorite snacks because it's time to watch American Horror Story Chapter Six. On September 14th, the premiere of Chapter Six of AMH. Only one episode has aired so far and hundreds of questions from long-time fans already started popping up. The plot is still a little unclear, like what the main enemy is and why they're attacking the two main protagonists, a lovely couple played by Sarah Paulson and Cuba Gooding Jr.

The theme for this season hasn't been released yet but lots of fans have some guesses to what it will be. "I think that the theme will be aliens because all the past seasons were about paranormal theories and aliens are considered paranormal," says Molly Phillips, a 7th grader at Shumate who is a fan of AMH. Fans are already arguing about theories online, but we all know one thing- this season has to be great if it wants to live up to past seasons expectations.

iPhone 7

By: Rachael Keller

Is the new iPhone 7 as popular as Apple thinks? When the iPhone 6s came out it was much more popular than the 7. The iPhone 7 is waterproof but still has been having troubles, and they been having many bug fixes. On the upside the iPhone 7's have cordless headphones. Apple has also added a new color jet black. This phone has a shiny black back. They still the original colors, gold, rose gold, black and silver.

Some students at Shumate Middle School think the same about the iPhone 7 not being so popular Alyssa Houser says

"the phone I have can do just as much but the iPhone 7 would be cool to have." But some people don't think the same. "I think it would be nice to have the iPhone 7 because it has more space and I think it would be cool to have different colors for it," said Kayston Puroly. There are many different opinions for the iPhone

No Man's Lie?

By: Makayla Straub

Is this space exploration game really just full of lies? On August 10th, 2016 the first copy of No Man's Sky was released for the PS4. Gamers were hyped about the new game, but after hundreds of copies were sold worldwide critics were starting to notice the missing features the game was promised to have. For example; no multiplayer, no large fleets of ships, and no planet variety. Gamers began to notify Hello Games, the creators of No Man's Sky, about the missing features, but still haven't gotten a response from the company.

Gamers were furious about the missing features. So furious that they re-treated to YouTube to share their opinions to the world. Natasha Williams, an 8th grader here at Shumate Middle school, has an opinion that many have also adapted "The game started to get really boring when they promised us all the features and we didn't get them." One of the game's biggest flaws was the missing multiplayer. Sean Murray, the head of Hello Games, has stated in multiple interviews stating that "Yes, you will be able to play with your friends." This was a lie. There is no multiplayer anywhere in the game and it's impossible to meet or see anyone while playing the game. Sean Murray has also stated before that you will be able to land on commits and destroy space stations. Again, these two weren't implemented into the game's final release. While the universe of No Man's Sky is endless, the planets are far similar to many others. There were also no Desert Planets that were shown in the trailer of the game. Should you check it out? You de-

By: Jada Gardener\

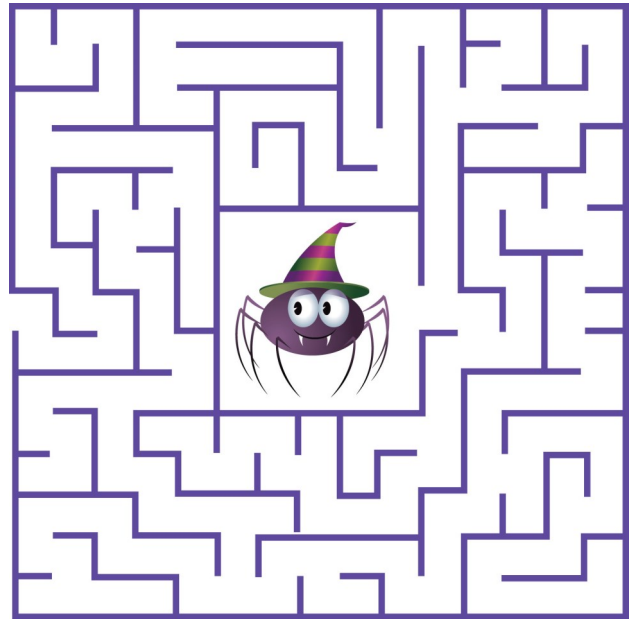

Many people know that One Direction is on break, but will they come back? According to Louis Tomlinson's tweet, One Direction is coming back in 2017. But many do not believe him. Joelle Franko, an 8th grader at Shumate middle school says, "I don't think One Direction isn't coming back, because they're already making separate music and being in movies." Joelle's statement is in fact true, Liam Payne is featuring in the song 'You' by Juicy J and Wiz Khalifa which has not been released yet. Harry is also doing something big over the break, he's featured in the movie 'Dunkirk' coming out in 2017.

People also don't know why One Direction went on break. Many articles say that One Direction needed time for themselves, but 7th grader Maddie Baker says "I think One Direction went on break because, Louis had a child." Louis Tomlinson did have a child on January, 21, 2016 in Los Angeles, California. The baby's name is Freddie Reign Tomlinson. Many fans do not like the eight month year old. Other fans think he's a publicity stunt and that Louis didn't really have a child.

Until 2017 Directioners will be unsure of One Direction's return.
